

Anaesthetist – Bay of Plenty – New Zealand

Submitted on: 29 December 2017 , Reference number: 2017239

End date: 29 March 2018

Location:

The position is situated in two cities of the Bay of Plenty, Rotorua and Taupo.

Rotorua has about 55.000 inhabitants and is located in the middle of the Northern Island 60 kilometers south of Tauranga and 105 kilometers southeast of Hamilton. Several roads, a railway line and an airport enclose it. The Rotorua Lake is the largest of a group of 17 lakes in the area. The city of Rotorua is located on the southern shore of the lake, in an area with geothermal activity of volcanic origin. Everywhere in the surrounding area this can be seen.

The lake also offers recreation such as fishing, boating and kayaking and the surrounding area is also an excellent place for hiking and cycling.

Job Description:

For a healthcare provider in New Zealand, we are currently looking for an anaesthetist for a full-time, permanent position.

The successful candidate will work as an all-round anesthetist in two hospitals in the Bay of Plenty. The department of Anesthesiology is responsible for the anesthesia within the OR complex. In addition, it is responsible for the care for the surgical patients in the IC department. The candidate will also participate in a roster on a call basis of 1:12 in the OR complex and in the IC department. Finally, you will provide education to young doctors and medical students.

You are expected to have recent clinical experience in the departments of Anesthesiology and Intensive Care. Additionally, excellent communication and management skills are required. Lastly, the candidate should be able to provide leadership and be able to work together in a multidisciplinary manner.

The healthcare provider offers attractive employment conditions in a modern environment together with a competent team. In addition, the care provider helps with the relocation to New Zealand.
